PART TWO...

From: Dwane Yoder <dwaneyoder@sprintmail.com>

Chris:

In reference to cemeteries where Yoders are buried in Somerset Co. Pa. I noticed that a cemetery was missing from the exhaustive list given. That cemetery is the St. James Lutheran Church grave yard --now without a church building--located in Jenner Township, off route 601 between Boswell and Jerome in Somerset County. My grandparents are buried there along with 2 children. The names of the Yoders of my family are :
Father, Joseph 1878-1943, Mother: Gwertrude Grace (Sowerbrower) 1885-1964; Infant son--(no name) of above parents 1927-1927 and Daughter Bessie V. (1909-1925).

Other Yoders are not relatives of the above. Further identification as to family source may be possible through the good offices of Jerry Yoder who comes from the same area in Conemaugh Township, Somerset Co. where these names come from. They are:

Vernon W. Yoder 1913-1948--He is from the Hyasota Yoders--Truman, John etcl who lived on route 601 at the railroad trtacks in Hyasota. Other family member names escape me.

John E. Yoder 1906-1972 married to Ethel Griffith, born 1911--death date not on stone. Jerry might know of the "Soap Hollow" Yoders. John was of this group

As of this date 30 Nov. 1998 there are no other Yoders buried at this cemetery. respectfully, Dwane Yoder

Subject: Yoder Burial

Date: Fri, 26 Mar 2004 16:23:37 -0500

I'm William L Yoder, age 46, Waynesboro Pa. My family came from Somerset Co., Stony Creek Township. My Great Grand Father was Jonas Yoder, 1840-1917 (YR2395b) buried at Payman. I would like to add another cemetery to the list when Yoders are buried. Most of my father's ( William Jonas Yoder ) 1914 -1984, family are buried in Mizpah Cemetery in Somerset Co. I believe the cemetery was part of the old Will's Church. My grandparents, parents, three uncles, three aunts, etc. I'm sorry but I do not have the address at this time.

Sincerely,
William ( Bill) Lynn Yoder
