Barbara _____. On December 8, 1750, he bought his father's farm of 99 acres. On April 2, 1753, he bought 70 acres of land in Richland Twp., Bucks Co., PA from John Lester. In 1759, he was a witness to the renunciation of Barbara Clymer as administratrix to her husband's Will. He signed his name Kasber Joder. Between 1767 and 1772, he bought a farm of 131 acres located in New Brittan Twp., Bucks Co., PA from John Stephens for the sum 660 pounds. He bought this farm for his oldest son, Jacob, who lived there till his death in 1828. In 1778, he was taxed for six pounds ten shillings. In 1779, he was taxed on 169 acres, four horses and five cattle. He wrote his Will on January 5, 1781. His inventory was taken on April 9, 1781. He and his wife were members of the Swamp Mennonite Church and are buried there. He sold his 99 acre farm in Milford and ten of the 70 acre tract of land in Richland Twp. To his son, Casper Yoder, Jr. He sold the remaining 60 acres of the 70 acre tract that he bought in 1753 from John Lester to his son, John. The conditions of the sale of these three tracts of land are shown in his Last Will and Testament. (Last Will and Testament: Westchester, p340)

Jacob owned a farm of 131 acres in New Brittan Twp., Bucks, PA. Jacob's father bought this farm from John Stephens between 1767 and 1772 for 660 pounds. At the time of his father's death in 1781, Jacob had paid his father 250 pounds and was directed to pay 217 pounds more, making the price he paid at 467 pounds or about 3/4th the price that his father had paid for the property. (Descendants of Jacob Yothers, Bucks Co., PA by Richard J. Yothers, 1984)

Jacob bought 74 acres of land with a house, barn, and other buildings from John Dungan on April 11, 1809. He sold 50 acres of the 74 acre tract along with the farm house and all the buildings to his son, Jacob, on July 25, 1815. (Descendants of Jacob Yothers, Bucks Co., PA by Richard J. Yothers, 1984)

In 1778, he was taxed 5 pounds; in 1779 he was taxed on 130 acres, 4 horses, and 9 cattle; in 1781, he was taxed on 130 acres, 3 horses and 5 cattle; in 1782, he was taxed on 131 acres, 2 horses and 5 cattle; in 1783, he was taxed 2 pounds, 13 shillings and 9 pence; in 1784, he was taxed on 130 acres, 1 dwelling house, 1 outbuilding, 6 whites and 0 blacks; in 1785, he was taxed on 130 acres, 2 horses and 4 cattle; in 1786, he was taxed 19 pounds; in 1787, he was taxed 18 pounds; in 1824, he was taxed on 154 acres, 2 horses and 4 cattle. Jacob died intestate on April 29, 1828 and his personal property inventory was taken on May 15 by Jacob Kephart and John _____. His property was appraised at $5,086.07. Today, the land that Jacob farmed, is covered with many homes. The house today is a very well kept two-story structure. Bur: Doylestown Mennonite Cemetery All Yothers in Bucks County are descendants of Jacob & Barbara Yothers.
