

YNL SPONSORS YODER DNA PROJECT!

DNA testing is increasingly becoming an important complement to the study of documents and records in genealogy. In recognition of this, the Yoder Newsletter is sponsoring a Yoder Family DNA project. Our testing is being conducted through the Family Tree DNA organization, which is operating the well publicized "Genographic Project" in partnership with National Geographic magazine. The goal of the Project is to use focused testing of Yoder male descendants to create YDNA profiles of the earliest known common ancestors, and to establish or to rule out the links between the various family lines. By "focused testing" we mean we intend to encourage the testing of representatives of specific families who should provide the most genealogically significant results to the overall study.

For example, it is known that the Oley Valley Yoders and various Alsatian and German Yoder lines descend from the brothers Jost Joder (b. 1607) and Nicolas (b. 3/25/1609) of Steffisburg, Switzerland. It has been suspected, but not proven, that the Mennonite Hans Yoder of Great Swamp, the Amish Yoder immigrants of 1742, and Melchior Yoder of Weidenthal also come from this family. If the DNA profile determined for the progenitor of each of these lines is found to match one another, our hypothesis would be supported. YDNA testing of living male descendants CANNOT PROVE who was the father of a Yoder immigrant. It can, however, establish that a common ancestor was shared within a certain number of likely generations (depending on how precise the analysis). It can also rule out a close relationship.

Come to the National Yoder Reunion Grantsville, Md, October 19-22, 2006

By this time, all Yoder Newsletter subscribers should have received a separate mailing announcing the 2006 National Yoder Reunion (Thursday evening, October 19 through Sunday, October 22) in Grantsville, Maryland. The event will be held on the grounds of the Spruce Forest Artisan Village where the Yoder House, a mid-18th century colonial-style home, is located (www.houseofyoder.org). The three-story house features a root cellar, beautiful stone walk-in fireplace and numerous items of interest to the Yoder family (genealogical records, heirlooms, etc.). The weekend will feature numerous activities including dedication and tours of the Yoder House, local history presentations, a public sale of Yoder artifacts and crafts, a Friday evening banquet (with a presentation by YNL Editor Chris Yoder on the different Yoder immigrant lines and on latest results from the Yoder DNA testing), a Saturday day-long tour of Yoder sites and the 9/11 Flight 93 crash site, performances of an original drama on the life of Yost Yoder of Steffisburg, Switzerland, and a Sunday morning worship service in the Yoder House.

The bus tour will begin at the Comfort Inn at Grantsville, Maryland at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday and go north into Pennsylvania where the first Yoders settled in this area. Nearly all of the places will

THE WISCONSIN YODERS

Wisconsin does not rank with such states as Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana as centers of Yoder population, but thanks to the descendants of Solomon Yoder (YR2338) there were Yoders there by the 1860s, and some of us remain there today. Solomon Yoder was the son of Bishop Christian Yoder Sr. and Madlena Troyer of Somerset Co., Pa. Solomon was born in 1793, married Elizabeth Gindelsperger, and had ten recorded children. According to his nephew Reuben Yoder, he moved to Holmes Co., Oh. in 1827 and onward to Lagrange Co., In. in 1851 where he later died.

The 1880 Wisconsin census shows 9th child, John Yoder, as being in Red Cedar Twp, Dunn Co. with his family. John's children, including married daughter 17-year-old Mary Myers are show as all having been born in Wisconsin (meaning he had been there by 1863). In Albany Twp., Pepin Co, the 8th child of Solomon- also named Solomon, lived with his family. Birth places for his children establish that he had moved to Wisconsin before 1873. Sometime after 1880 their younger brother Christopher joined John in Dunn County.

CHRISTOPHER YODER

The photo of John Yoder (YR23389) is displayed with permission of the Brethren Press, Elgin, Ill. John was born in Ohio, Jan.23,1835. He married Caroline Keck in Elkhart Co., In. on Aug. 8, 1853. In an article about the "Irwin Creek" Brethren congregation, the Brethren Encyclopedia says:

"In 1864 the families of John Pippinger and John Joder from Indiana, whose wives were sisters, settled a few miles west of Menomonie in Dunn County. Two years later they were followed by brother-in-law, Joseph Keck, who located in St. Croix County. In 1877 he settled in Dunn County, but south of the Chippewa River. His new home became the center for activities which later led to the organization of the Chippewa congregation. For this information we are indebted to Mr. Lucy Yoder Cummings, of Menomonie, oldest of the sixteen children in the Yoder family.

"The year 1869 was a memorable one for the Irwin Creek group. Meeting in the home of John Yoder they held a love feast and formed an organization. They chose John Pippinger as their elder. Either then or soon afterward Samuel Crist was elected minister. During this period the Nutter family was active in church work. ... About 1893 they built a small meetinghouse. In 1910 they sold the house and the remaining members transferred their memberships to the Chippewa Valley congregation."

Christina Noftzinger and Henry Yoder?

John Nofshtzinger died prior to April 26, 1813, when his will was filed in Somerset Co. Pa. The will mentioned his property on Quemahoning Creek and noted his wife Anna and children. One child was a Christina Noftzinger who is said in the settlement records to have been married to Henry Yoder and lived in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, as of 1814. The known Henry in Westmoreland at that time was YB214- Henry F. Yothers (1776-1846 Westmoreland Co., Pa. bur Alverton Men. Cem.). He had moved to Mt.Pleasant, PA c1790-99 and m. Sep.22, 1801 in Somerset Co., PA to Elizabeth Stickler. We have no date of death for Elizabeth. Can anyone explain this reference? While there is a daughter named "Christina" born by 1814 and some gaps as much as 3 years between children, the "Descendants of Jacob Yothers" book shows a middle initial of "S" for children born as late as 1822. (A common Mennonite practice at the time was to take the first letter of the mother's name as a middle initial).

Letters to the Editor

CHRISTIAN "STAHLEY"- NOT YODER

The "unknown" photograph in YNL 44, labeled "Grandpa Christian Yoder 1895", is my GGGrandfather Christian S. Stahley setting on his porch. I have an original of this photo. He was Magdalena (Mattie) Stahley's father, Grandfather to Rudolph Yoder.

I recently mailed in my subscription to YNL. I'm a grandson of Amos B. Yoder, son of Stephen, son of Gabriel, son of Stephen, son of John Yoder and Magdalena Stutzman. Looking forward to learning more of the Yoders.--Allan Corwin, 28648 CR 38, Wakarusa IN 46573, Allan Corwin <abcorwin@peoplepc.com

SISTERS IDENTIFIED

The first page of the YNL I received yesterday was very interesting to me. My Dad, Willard Yoder often spoke of his Uncle Milo, Aunt Lyda and their two sons. Often as a young person he would point out articles in the Saturday Evening Post that Bob had written. I am a saver but I was too young to think about saving those--what a mistake. I do remember them being very entertaining. He often spoke about Joseph Joder and I believe he had told me the reason for the J instead of the Y. My husband's grandfather did the same thing later in the 1870's when he migrated and changed the last name from Joas to Ioas.

In the photo in the lower left corner, the missing ladies names are their three daughters; Eura, Alice and Minnie in that order from L to R. I have some newspaper clippings about the J.J. Yoder 58th wedding anniversary which I will send to you by mail as I don't know how to put it on the computer and forward. In the article it will list the women by their husband's names so Eura is Mrs. Herman Staley, Alice is Mrs Fred Spencer and Minnie is Mrs. Albert Frey.

I hope this information is of interest to you. I enjoy the YNL so much and often find articles about my family that are of interest. I save them all (another Yoder trait or perhaps that comes from the Kinsinger side.). Keep up the great work. Joan Yoder Ioas joas@sbcglobal.net

YODER POLITICIANS MEET SUCCESS

www.DickYoder.com

Mayor Dick Yoder

Sen. John Yoder

A numbers of Yoders are succeeding in the political field. Mayor Richard (Dick) Yoder was re-elected last November to a second term as mayor of West Chester, Pa. At the same time, John C. Yoder of Harpers Ferry, West Virginia has returned to the State Senate, rolling up a 58% landslide.

Rep. Kevin Yoder

Mayor Norm Yoder

Kevin Yoder of Overland Park was elected to the Kansas House of Representatives with almost 67% of the vote. In Auburn, Indiana, mayor Norm Yoder continues his tenure.

A VISIT TO BERKS COUNTY

"Fern and her son are on the right while my dad (Kenneth Eugene Yoder of Iowa City, IA.) is on the right. My kids Jack (tallest boy) and Samantha Day are in front. Riley de Vries (son of my sister Kathy Yoder de Vries) is also in front. Just thought you would like to see the family resemblance....look at the noses!"

We are safely back from our trip out East. We had a great time thanks to your help and some divine intervention. We did locate the sign marking the Indian massacre and found the Hertzler farm. Not much to see at either because they wanted no visitors at the first and the owner wasn't home at the second. My dad and I still enjoyed seeing the area quite a bit. I picked up some walnuts and acorns in hopes of starting a tree from the massacre site.

We then headed in search of the Old Yoder cemetery (Northkill Amish cemetery- see:

<http://www.mcusa-archives.org/Features/northkill.html> ) , much to the dismay of the two five year olds and the eight year old that hadn't eaten lunch or seen much yet. (They thought they were going to see bones and maybe even blood from the massacre.) We drove around the small town (Hamburg, Pa.) and couldn't find the Cemetery. There no restaurants or gas stations to ask for help. The post office

 SELF-GUIDED TOUR

 Thanks to the Oley Valley Yoders of Berks County, and our YNL webmaster Don Kauffman, we are able to present on the Yoder Homepage ( www.yodernewsletter.org ) a downloadable copy of "PLEASANTVILLE FROM THE PAST", a self-guided tour of Yoder sites in the Oley region. This is a PDF document of about 7 MB and if you only have a dial up connection, you should probably not try to access it.

"The information provided in this booklet is the result of over thirty years of research by The Oley Yoder Heritage Association's Historian, Richard H, Yoder of Bechtelsville, Pennsylvania. Other contributors include Fred Moll, covered bridge expert; Stuart Kern; The Reverend William W. Weiser of Bethany Evangelical Congregational Church in Pleasantville; and members of the Oley Yoder Heritage Association, especially Edna Yoder Dierolf."

was closed. Finally we turned down a street and saw someone outside. We decided to ask for help.

We ended up finding Fern Yoder and her son Paul! They are also from the YR1 line! She came out with a big history book of the Mast family and showed us some information. We laughed as we all noticed that my dad, Fern and Paul all had the same nose! She said my dad looked like her brother's children. After a bit she had to go to an appointment but her son took us to the Jacob Yoder house and showed us another Yoder house that has been sided and looks very modern now. His friend owns the Jacob Yoder house and we met him.

Jacob Yoder House

Then he took us to the cemetery where we did find many Yoder headstones (Belleman's). It was so much fun. The kids enjoyed the stone house and the cemetery and yelled "Goodbye family member!" when we had to part. My dad believes he was taken to the Jacob Yoder house as a child. He is trying to get to my grandmother's memory books to search for a picture. Anyway, we had a great time. Thanks for your help. We now want to go back and search for more living and past family members. — Susan Yoder Day (g-daughter of Richard Dean Yoder (YR121344)

Aaron S. Yoder (1826-1898) Identified

In YNL 6 we listed: Wayne Co., Oh- "Licences issued but no marriage recorded: 2/22/1854-Aaron Yoder and Cath. Traster, " For years, we've included this Aaron S. Yoder among our "Unlinked Yoders". Thanks to Charles H. Yoder, of Bethlehem, Pa. we have now identified him and moved him to the proper place in our family groups.

Charles quotes a 1932 letter by Henry Freed Yoder to his brother Paul Freed Yoder which spells out that their grandfather Reuben Souder Yoder had a brother Aaron who moved to Ohio and had children as named. Aaron's son Reuben moved to Illinois. Here's what we now show:

John Yoder died on Feb. 29, 1916 and his wife Caroline on Dec. 16, 1926 in Menomonie. Both are buried in the Teegarden Cemetery which is east of Knapp, Wisconsin on Route 12.

Christopher Yoder was born Aug. 17, 1839 in Holmes County, Oh. He apparently moved with his parents to Lagrange Co., In. in 1851. When the Civil War broke out, he served as a Private in H Company 88th Regiment Indiana Infantry. The regiment was mustered into service at Ft. Wayne in August of 1862 and fought in battles through Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia and the Carolinas. At the end of hostilities the regiment marched to Washington, D.C., via Richmond, Va., for a "Grand Review" on May 24, 1865 and a mustering out June 7, 1865. The regiment "lost during service 9 Officers and 55 Enlisted men killed and mortally wounded and 3 Officers and 147 Enlisted men by disease. Total 214." More information on the unit can be found at:

(Christian followed the model of his uncle Moses Yoder and cousin Josiah who served in F Company 129th Indiana Infantry. Moses died of smallpox during the war.)

On Sep. 11, 1866, Christopher married Sarah Harbison who had been born in Wayne County, Oh in 1844. A family records shows she "was Presbyterian when they married and Grandpa had no church so they both joined the Dunkard Church". Family historians Anita Larson and Helen Yoder Hart have reported that Christopher was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR). He applied for a pension in 1883 (Record number I 499821 301694 WI). Christopher died in Knapp, Wisc. on July 8, 1900. His widow Sara made her application for a widows pension in 1900 (record number W 729357 571075 WI ) and she outlived him by another 24 years, dieing on July 28, 1924 in Dunn Co. Yoder Company B 22 ind redgement in the cear of lieutenant Carver.

—John H Yoder to his Mahala Yoder his wife, remember and take care of Willis

Thanks to Daniel Cahill of Elgin, Ill for the above letter. John H Yoder was born about 1835 in Ohio and died in 1901. He is buried in the Eastlawn Cemetery, North Liberty, St. Joseph Co., Ind. His unit history following this letter was as follows:

“Occupation of Goldsboro March 24. Advance on Raleigh April 10-14. Occupation of Raleigh April 14. Bennett's House April 26. Surrender of Johnston and his army. March to Washington, D.C., via Richmond, Va., April 29-May 19. Grand Review May 24. Moved to Louisville, Ky., June and duty there until July. Mustered out July 24, 1865. Regiment lost during service 14 Officers and 139 Enlisted men killed and mortally wounded and 190 Enlisted men by disease. Total 343.” For more info on this unit see:

<http://www.civilwararchive.com/Unreghst/unininf2.htm#22nd>

The Grand Review

It is interesting to see that this unit participated in the same “Grand Review” in Washington as did that of Christopher Yoder of the Wisconsin Yoders. The “Grand Review” was held over a two day period with Sherman’s Army marching in review on May 24th, 1865 before President Johnson. Beginning its final march at 9 A.M. on a beautiful day, his 65,000-man army passed in review for six hours. For more on this see: <http://www.civilwarhome.com/grandreview.htm>

John is from one of our “unlinked” families. His wife was named Mahalia and his three children as of the time of the letter were: Emma L. (c1860 In- ); Ester M. (c1862 In- ); and Ida B. (c1864 In- ). His parents were Christopher Yoder (c1800 Oh-1871 In) who married Amanda Marie Haymaker in Muskingum Co., Oh 11/16/1830. Christopher lived in Richland Co., OH and then Marshall Co., Oh before moving to North Liberty, Ind. He is shown among our “unlinked” folk as code “BK”, and is one of the earliest born of our unidentifed Yoders.

FIVE GENERATIONS CELEBRATE 50TH

ABRAHAM H. (BYLER) YODER
(1852-1927) (YR251445)

Abraham, aka “Abe” came to Marlboro, Stark County, Ohio from his family home in Menno, Mifflin County, Pa. with his six brothers in 1873. The brothers cleared the forestland, built a log cabin and cultivated the land. In 1875 Abe returned to Mifflin County, Pa. to marry his bride, Laura E. (Haffly) Smith and returned to Marlboro, Ohio to live in the log cabin.

For many years, Abe and his brother Isaac owned and operated a log and lumber mill in Hartville, Stark County, Ohio. Abraham and Laura (Ella) are buried in Marlboro Cemetery, Stark County, Ohio.

This photo was taken on Abraham and Laura’s 50th Wedding Anniversary in 1925. When my wife, Shirley and I celebrated our 50th Wedding Anniversary in December, 2002, I was the fifth consecutive generation to have celebrated a 50th Wedding Anniversary on my paternal side (Heyd & Overholt) and on both the paternal and maternal side of my mother (Yoder & Stinchcomb). Today it equals 547 consecutive years!! Amish and Mennonites believe in marriage longevity.

My older brother, David, E. Hyde, Greenwood, SC is also a Yoder member and he and his wife Joyce were also married 50 years in 2001 and part of our Amish/Mennonite marriage tradition.

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND THE NATIONAL YODER REUNION – OCT. 19-22, 2006

LOST BATTALION BOOK AVAILABLE

The book Finding the Lost Battalion: Beyond the Rumors, Myths and Legends of America's Famous WWI Epic is now available. In YNL #41, we outlined the efforts to find “Bob Yoder” who is a character in a TV movie about this battle. The author Robert Laplander indicates that Bob Yoder is mentioned on at least one page that he can think of off hand, as well as in the ‘Sources’ appendix. He reports that there are some 90 photos (sorry, Bob is not among them) and plenty of maps. Anyone interested in this 616 page book can see about ordering it at: www.lulu.com/lostbattalion.

The Y chromosome DNA is passed virtually unchanged from father to son. Matching results on individual DNA "markers" on the Y chromosome between the descendants of a common known ancestor can identify the DNA "profile" of that ancestor. Comparison of DNA profiles can establish the closeness of family relationship between family lines with a previously unproven relationship. The more markers which are checked and found to match, the closer is the relationship which can be assumed. A testing kit is sent and returned through the mail, and a simple scraping/swabbing of the inside of the mouth captures the cells needed for the test.

We seek to test one or two male descendant from each of the sons of the major Yoder immigrant lines at the "25 marker" level of testing. You can help in two ways: 1) if you are a male Yoder and your line does not already have a testing volunteer, you can submit data for testing; 2) you can make a contribution to help pay for some of the testing (the 25 marker test is $169 plus postage, and we are find many folks who are willing to participate in the project, but who don't have the level of interest to be willing to reach this deeply into their own pockets for testing.) Contributions can be made at:

<http://www.familytreedna.com/contribution.html>

with the funds specified for "the Yoder Project".

The template of lines being tested are listed below (Italics show lines WHERE WE STILL NEED a test participant, as this is drafted):

Miscellaneous Tests:

... Selected Yetter, Yotty, Yorty lines, to rule out or identify a possible Yoder link. We will also try to arrange testing for several of our European Joder/Jotter family members to further enhance the analysis baseline. (We already have a Steffisburg Joder being tested) FOR FURTHER INFO SEE:

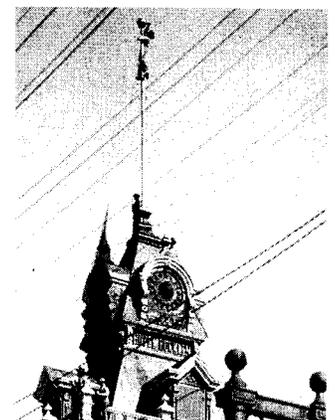

<http://www.familytreedna.com/DNAList.asp?Group=Yoders>

WE NEED TESTERS in each of the lines which are marked in italics above. If you are willing to be tested as a part of this project, please contact Chris Yoder at: cnyder@tds.net or call 269-857-4327. ***** We should have some initial results of this testing to report in the Oct. 2006 YNL, and also expect to address these at the October 19-22, 2006 national reunion being held at HOUSE OF YODER . *****

The fellow painting the ball atop the flagpole is Ray S. Yoder (YR2337a24) (1886-1962). Ray was an Elkhart fireman, fire chief, painter and paperhanger. After the ALCAN Highway was built in WWII, he twice drove a Studebaker, towing a second one, from the South Bend factory to a delivery point in Alaska, and flew back. *****

FAMILY OF AMOS YODER (OH 13387)

Back row: Oscar/Azor, b.1876; Rebecca Jane, b.1874; Irvin Anthony; Mary Catherine (Yoder) Anthony, b.1870; Naomi Belle Anthony, 1888-1968, married Elmer Lewis YODER. Front row: Tena/Teny, b.1880; Lydia (Klock) Yoder, 1850-1934; Amos Yoder, b.1834-1916; Martha Viola, 1879. All are children of Amos and Lydia except for Irvin (Mary Catherine's husband) and Naomi who is their child.

This is the Family of Amos Yoder, Stonemason, OH13387, born in 1834 in Schuylkill Co, Pa. The picture is from Red Bank Twp, Armstrong County, PA, where they lived. Amos S. Yoder was the son of Solomon Yoder and Elizabeth Sherman. His wife Lydia was the daughter of Abraham Klock and Judy Hess. The pix of him and his family is in 1889 in Red Bank. He is my triple great grandfather.

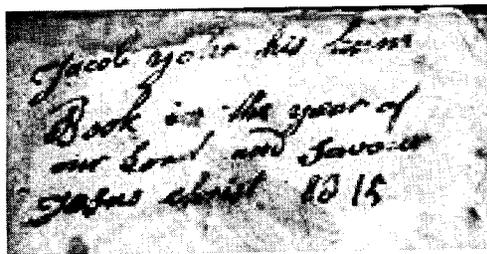

"We Call Him Ears"! Same Amos Yoder as the 1888 pix, but this one is closer to 1900-1905. Amos died in 1916.

"I guess one could say I am a double Yoder. My Grandmother, Ruth Viola (Yoder) Markle, was also a Yoder, from Naomi Bell Anthony's marriage to Elmer Lewis Yoder."

JACOB YODER (YR1464) HYMNBOOK

Chris, this is the German Hymn Book believed to have been given to Jacob Yoder YR1464 (5/2/1795LP-4/15/1850FO) by his father Christian (Dick) Yoder YR146 b 4/2/1761 LP d 12/27/1847 MP. Inscription reads; "Jacob Yoder his Hymn Book in the year of our Saviour Jesus Christ 1815". The Hymn Book (Handbook of the Christian Doctrine and Religion Compiled from the Holy Scriptures / by Dietrich Philip, printed 1811 ) is currently in the possession of John L. Yoder YR146443413, Eugene, OR. johnleeyoder@msn.com

be of early Yoder historical interest. Three of the main stops on the tour will be the farms and cemeteries where Henry (YR261), Christian (YR23), and Magdalena (YR 13?) lived and are buried. In addition, you will see some early non-Yoder history where George Washington, who at the age of 22, built the first wagon road across the mountains in 1754 only to be widened a year later by General Braddock on his way to Fort Duquesne. You will see where both Washington and Braddock camped at Little Meadows.

The tour will also visit the farms where three other early Yoders lived before moving to other communities—John (YR125), John (YR 25), and Jacob (YR121), also known as Casselman Jacob. Other interesting places along the way will include: the Yoder School, "Yotter Eck" (Yoder Corner), the Yoder Church House (Amish), an Amish School, and the site of the Hochstetler infanticide perpetrated by Henry Yoder (YR2613). The book "Eyes in the Window" by Evie Miller is based on this historical episode.

The tour will also include the farm where Christian Yoder (YR2611a) was tortured and robbed, driving through a town previously called "Yetterstadt", and another place called "Yoder Station". "Yetterstadt" is where "Axie" Joseph (YR1212) lived. He was famous for the quality axes he built. Nestled in the rolling hills on top of the Allegheny Mountains, the tour will see many small businesses, farms, and homes occupied by the descendants of the early Yoders. Finally, the tour will stop at the site where Flight 93 came down on September 11, 2001. The tour buses will return in time for tour participants to take in the premiere of the drama of Yost Yoder of Steffisburg, Switzerland if they have paid for the drama in their registration.

Yost Yoder was a well-to-do landowner in 17th century Steffisburg, Switzerland. He was a member of the church-state court (the Chorgericht) with both governors and crusaders prominent in his lineage. And yet many of his ten sons and daughters chose to become Anabaptists, while Yost retained his position on the court and engineered an expansion project for the Reformed Church. He returned to duty even after six months of imprisonment for refusing to reveal the names of Anabaptists under his jurisdiction. Through the eyes of Yost's son Christian, the drama, written by Elizabeth Beachy, tells the story of Yost Yoder, a man torn between responsibility to his family and to his Lord.

Humor, excitement, and 16th century life seriousness will be portrayed as Yost's son Christian grows from childhood into a married man with his own farm, all the while serving as a leader of the Anabaptists. Interesting scenes will include:

- Christian pestering his mother about the truthfulness of the stories of St. Yoder when he is supposed to be doing his homework
- Christian trying to understand the many "Anna's" in his life
- a sharp verbal exchange between Yost and Jacob Amman at an Anabaptist meeting where Jacob Amman, founder of the Amish, is speaking
- a confrontation between Christian and a local constable who happens to walk into a hastily dispersed late night Anabaptist church meeting in Christian's barn. To Christian's evasive answers and embarrassment, the constable asks why Christian needs all these benches if he is just caring for his cows!
- Christian's arrest and imprisonment in Bern in the most expensive hotel in the city where Christian must cover all of his own expenses, including the expensive items his waitress serves him even though doesn't want them.

Yoder artists and crafts persons are encouraged to consider contributing something for an Art Show and Sale on Oct. 20th. Proceeds will be used to support the on-going work of the Yoder House. The point of contact for this is Kenneth Yoder, 365 Dorsey Hotel Rd., Grantsville, Md 21536, (301) 895-5687.

Registration is requested to be completed by August 19, 2006 to: Jim Yoder, 11035 National Pike, Grantsville, MD 21536. Any questions you have may be directed to: Paul H. Yoder, 507 Hemlock Drive, Grantsville, MD 21536; 301-895-5411; phyoder@juno.com

Death of G. Gordon Yoder

G. Gordon Yoder (YR12a369) died October 15, 2004 in Dallas, following a long illness. He was 85, born February 24, 1919. Yoder had a long career in film making, receiving many awards and recognitions. He also developed many technical innovations for camera equipment used throughout the industry. He received his first still camera at the age of 8 and won his first "first prize" in a photography contest held at a summer camp that year. A year later his grandfather gave him his first movie camera. He experimented in both still and "moving picture" photography and in 1937 began working at the Jamieson Film Company in Dallas. He was a motion picture photographer during WWII, and worked for Paramount News. In 1950 he was assigned as a war correspondent to cover the Korean War for three years for the "American Newsreel Pool". Yoder also worked for Telenews and covered many stories, including astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr.'s landing in the Atlantic Ocean and John Glenn's historic earth orbit and landing. "I have never worked a day in my life, it has all been fun," Yoder told a group who was watching a presentation of his life's work. (The hat he is wearing above is one he got from a Swedish officer in Korea).—Adapted with permission from obituary by Donald Winslow, News Photographer magazine

Hello from Pleasantville and the Oley Yoder Heritage Association!

Our 2006 Regional Reunion will be held on Saturday, July 15 at the Fire House in Oley. We will have a luncheon, a raffle, a guest speaker and time for participants to meet and talk. The lunch will be buffet style with make-your-own sundaes for dessert, as they have become very popular. We will have several special gift packages and treats that will be raffled off through tickets sales and there will also be Yoder memorabilia for sale. Our guest speaker will be Glen Wenrich, vice president and director of the Pennsylvania Canal Society and volunteer guide at the Berks County Heritage Center. He will speak about and show slides of the canals of the region from Philadelphia to Port Carbon, a distance of 108 miles. He will give us a history of their uses and the effects of time, the economy and nature. He will also have artifacts, including the remnants of canal boats washed away and destroyed by hurricane Agnes when she raged through Pennsylvania in 1972.

We encourage you to bring your pictures and memorabilia to share with others. There will be time to share your family stories and to catch up with old friends and to make new ones. Come and bring your family and your stories to share.

We are selling Oley Yoder mugs (shiny dark blue with white Yoder insignia - $5.00 each) and Christmas balls (White with blue insignia - $8.00 or 2 for $15.00). If you are interested and cannot attend the reunion call Joe or Nancy Yoder using the phone numbers below for information and shipping charges.

We remind everyone about the Yoder House National Reunion being held in Maryland in the fall. We hope to have a group from our area going down to join in the festivities. If you live in the area would like to join us please contact our president, Joe Yoder, at 610-779-5932 or our corresponding secretary, Nancy Yoder, at 610-323-7736 or email us with Yoder Reunion in the subject line at kayoder@netcarrier.com.
