She was married to S. K. Yoder, Dec. 2, 1872, who, with four children, survives her. About three years ago they moved from Coopersburg, Pa., to Elkhart Co., Ind., and made their home with their daughter. She was a child who never knew the care of father or mother, but was reared in a good Christian home, that of Pre. Abel Straun of Coopersburg, Pa., where the writer also was partly brought up from childhood to manhood, and were considered as brother and sister and members of one family. She always had the best record as an honest and honorable woman. In early life she sought the Lord and was a constant attendant at church services. (Herald of Truth, August 15, 1907, page 298, 299)

On the 20th of March, in Beaver Township, Mahoning Co., Ohio, of typhoid fever, MALINDA, widow of John H. BIXLER. On the following morning, near the same place, at the residence of her son, ELIZABETH YODER, Grandmother of the above, and widow of Peter Yoder, dec'd. aged 73 years, 10 months, and 24 days. She was long a member of the Mennonite Church, and for more than five years constantly confined to her bed, and seldom able to speak audibly. Often, when hearing of a death, she expressed ardent desire to be released also; yet she bore her severe affliction with patience and resignation. They were both buried on the 22nd, the former immediately after the latter. Funeral services were delivered by the brethren Jacob Culp and Samuel Good, from Rev., 21:1-8. John H. Yoder. Several families from here (Greenford) attended. - Sarah(Detwiler) Yoder died Thursday, she was 85 years old. - Leetonia Reporter, 12/16/1903 - Lewis Yoder is sick with pneumonia. He is in his 90th year. Yoder.-Lewis Yoder was born Nov. 9, 1814, in Oversaucun Twp., Lehigh Co., Pa.; died Dec. 10, 1906, in Beaver Twp., Mahoning Co., Ohio; aged 92 Y., 1 M., 1 D. When twelve years of age he moved with his parents to Beaver township, of which he was a resident until death. On Dec. 7, 1837, he was married to Sarah Detwiler by Pre. Sonnedecker, to which union were born three daughters and six sons. After sixty-four years of married life his wife died. Two daughters (Mary and Elizabeth), four sons (Peter Thomas, Manassa and Fremont) preceded him in death. Of the three remaining children, two (Henry D. Yoder and Hannah Martin) reside in Mahoning Co., Ohio, and Joseph D. in Newton, Kan. Eleven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren are living. Early in married life he and wife united with the Mennonite church, to which they remained faithful until death. His seat in church was seldom vacant when able to attend. One of his grandchildren, Minnie Reichard, with her husband, is a missionary in India, in the United Brethren church. He was confined to his bed in a sitting posture since March 6, 1906. While the body was gradually growing weaker he never complained, but expressed his desire that the Lord should take him home. His memory was remarkably good for one of his age. Buried at Midway Meetinghouse, Dec. 14, where funeral services were conducted by David S. Lehman and Allen Richert, Text, Gen. 25:8. (Herald of Truth, Jan. 3, 1907, p 9)

Yoder, a distant cousin, upon recommendation of the Conference Executive Committee and with Congregational approval. He was ordained Bishop of the district at the Yellow Creek Meetinghouse on July 4, 1937 by D.D. Troyer of Clinton Frame. (Ray tended to be rather conservative in his discipline). He was a strong leader in the Indiana-Michigan Conference, and served on the Executive Committee, 1931-42, and as Moderator, 1948-50. He served as Bishop at Yellow Creek until 1954. During his service, he ordained Peter B. Wiebe as a minister and a bishop. He also ordained Abram Hartman. Burial: Yellow Creek North Cemetery member of the Mennonite Church and the kindest of companions and mothers.

She leaves a sorrowing husband and two children to mourn their loss, which we hope, is her eternal gain. She was buried on the 26th, in the South Union graveyard, Nappanee, where a large concourse of friends and relatives assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased sister. Funeral services were conducted by J. A. Bentler, Noah Metzler and David Burkholder, b2/20/1886-d10/14/1958. Note: In the early years of this century (1900's) there was a promising young man named David A. Yoder in the Holdeman Congregation, a high school graduate & a schoolteacher , commonly known in his mature years as "D.A." Bishop Burkholder ordained him as a preacher when age 23 on July 14, 1907 at Holdeman, with the understanding that he would go wherever he was needed as a minister. There were three young men in the lot. D.A. 's father, Peter B. Yoder (1855-1943) was one of them, who was born in Owen Co,IN and the maiden name of D.A.'s mother was Mary Fretz. D.A.'s wife was Frances Ferguson (1886-1958). D.A. Yoder was given charge of the Olive Congregation of about 50 members in 1908 & continued that charge for over 40 years, and was ordained bishop in the historic Yellow Creek (frame) Meetinghouse (now Wisler) on September 1, 1910 by Bishop Burkholder. . He was chosen by lot, the usual Mennonite practice for centuries. (The Yellow Creek Mennonites, p77&90) At the 1945 Centennial, D.A. Yoder, area bishop for a whole generation over Olive, Holdeman, & various other congregations, was one of the speakers. At his death, he had been a minister for over 72 years and a bishop for over 69 years, an all-time record for the Mennonites. The Yellow Creek Mennonites, p44) In 1949, there was an abrupt change of leadership in the Olive Church and D.A. Yoder & Clarence Shank were retired as active leaders. (p91) D.A. was a member of the Board of Education for about 40 years, half of that time as president, and following that as a life member.
