A BIRTHDAY GIFT FOR "TEDDY"

As a follow-on to the article about J. P. Yoder accompanying Teddy Roosevelt on the 1916 Presidential campaign, Teddys' sister reports how J. P. Yoder determined what gift the newsmen would give to Teddy on his 58th birthday. In her 1921 book "My Brother Theodore Roosevelt", Corinne Roosevelt Robinson, tells of how Yoder went out on the observation platform and casually asked the Colonel if he could borrow his knife. 'Yes--Yoder,' T. R. said, digging into his pocket, 'but I am ashamed of it. The blades are rusty, the handle is cracked. By George, I must get a new one.' And so they got him a new one! McYoder Lane, Reedsville, PA

Picture and story From Kay Semler of Reedsville, PA

Kay's father was John McGonegal Yoder, son of Christ P. Yoder and a grandson of Yost Yoder, who was a son of Roseanna (McGonegal) Yoder ("Rosanna of the Amish"). John was given his great-grandmother's surname as his middle name. He was referred to as "John Mc Yoder" to identify him from all the other others "John Yoders" in the area. Later in life much of his mail was addressed as "McYoder", one word. Kay reports that his farm lane was formally named "McYoder Lane" by another property owner a few years back when 911 addressing was required. (A longer biographical sketch by Kay has been posted on the Yoder Newsletter FACEBOOK site).

Hans Yoder "of Great Swamp" Data Updated!

Karolyn Roberts of Urbana Illinois has been gathering data for many years on the descendants of Mennonite Hans Yoder "of Great Swamp" (Family Code "YB"). We have linked to her data under the "non-Amish Yoder" section of the Yoder Webpage, but her host site changed a while back and it could no longer be accessed. We are very pleased to announce that she has provided updated versions of her files and we have added them back to our web site where they can now be found directly under a less extensive descendant file prepared years ago by the YNL. Many thanks to Karolyn for sharing her research!

Berks County was not formed until March 11, 1752, from parts of Chester County, Lancaster County, and Philadelphia County. Oley Township, which had finally been established in 1742 was still a part of Philadelphia County in 1735 and the Indenture was originally filed in Philadelphia County “patent book A vol. 7 page 109 &c”. at that time, with the following attestation from Justice of the Peace Boone:

“Received ye day of ye date of ____ written Indenture of ye written named John Joader Junr the sume of fifty pounds being ye consideration mony within mentioned. We say recd by us witnesses ____

“Memorandum ye 13th day of March in ye year of Our Lord 1735 before me George Boone Esq, one of the Justices of the peace for the city and county of Philadelphia came ye within named John Joader Senr & Rosina his wife and brought ye within writing Indented which they acknowledged to be their deed and desired that ye same may be recorded as their deed according to Law and ye said Rosina—being of full age and secretly and apart examined ye contents of ye said writing being first read distinctly unto her willingly consented.

Witness my hand an seal ye day and year above written.

Geo. Boone”

After Berks was established the indenture was again recorded with the Berks County Recorder’s office.

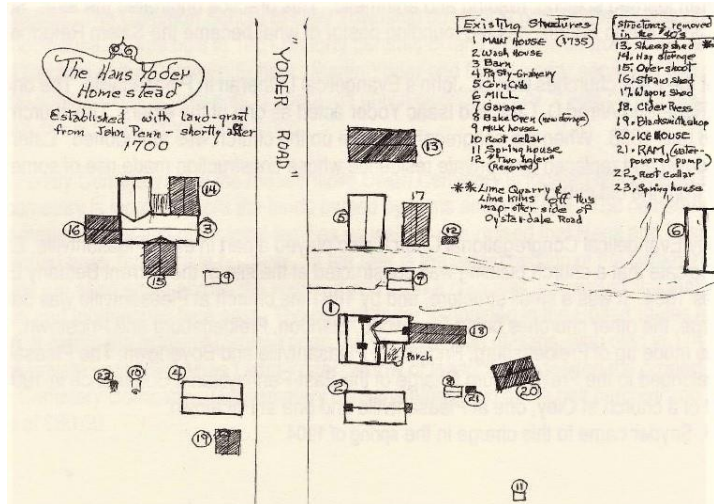

“I do hereby certify that the within written deed and acknowledgement therein endorsed were this day received exactly work for word and figure for ____ in the office for Recording of Deeds in Reading in and for the county of Berks in Record book A vol. 1 page 27 & 28th. Witness my hand ____ the county of Berks this first day of June in the year of our Lord One Thousand seven hundred and ____ . James Read Recorder (sp?)”

By this indenture, 63 year old (OH) and his second wife Anna Rosina LeDee (the step mother of John Jr) gave Hans’ oldest son John (1700-1779) (OH1) the northwestern half of his original 461 acres of land.

HOMESTEAD AT 13 YODER RD.

OLEY HOMESTEAD MAP FROM REUNION TOUR BOOK

In the will of Hans Yoder written Jun 17, 1739, he makes son John and widow Rosina his executors. Hans died by 1741 and the will filed with the Philadelphia court reads as follows:

"On the fourteenth Day of January 1741/2 then personally appeared Sam Guldin, Abraham Eshmann two of the Witnesses to the within written Will on their affirmation respectively did Declare they said heard John Jodder the Testament within mentioned sign seal Publish of Declares the same will to be his Last Will and Testament that at the doing thereof he was of sound mind memory and understanding to the best of their knowledge"

The will specifies (original spellings followed as accurately as possible):

The will itself has two specific mentions of real estate, one relative to son John, which seems to mention other lands John owned where were not addressed in the 1735 Indenture (1000 acres vs 207 acres):

Item. I give them and bequeath unto John Yodder by well beloved son, the Sum of fifty pounds -----Lawful Money of Pennsylvania which Shall be taken out of my Estate before anything is printed, Them the thousand acres of Land which he has in Possession now to have and to hold for Him and his Heirs forever, and everything what give Him

And the other relative to his widow and his son by her Daniel:

Item. I give and devise to my well beloved Son Daniel Yodder my Plantation and Land belonging to it for Him and His Heirs for ever.

Item. I will and I do order that my Sone Daniel shall permit and give his Modder a Room in his house or to buy to an other House upon the Plantation so long she lives and is unmarried and for her life he is to plow an Acre of Land every year.

Along with this filing was an

Inventory of John Joaders Estate

Prized the Fourth Day of Jan, 1741/2

The full details of property and its evaluation may be discussed in a subsequent article, but most relevant to the real estate was the entry on real estate:

The Plantation of 244 acres ---- 275 0

This 244 acres, valued at 275 British pounds represented the portion of the estate remaining after the 1735 indenture transferring the other half of his land to oldest son John. When the full accounting of the estate was filed on Sept. 5, 1748 (From Registry of Wills of Philadelphia 245, F268)

The Realle Estate is appraised in the Inv at 275. But that is willed away to Dan. under certain restrictions in behalf of his widdow as he willed is here ommitted in the generall Charge.

In summary—at the time of his death, Hans (OH) had already given the northeast half of his original 461 acre property to oldest son John and his will gives the balance of his land to son Daniel with whom the widow Rosina is to reside.

HANS (OH) YODER PROPERTY (1714 Survey)

The land was originally laid out as 415 acres on Jan 25, 1714 and the warrant returned Jan 27, 1714. A 1734 survey, perhaps in preparation for the Indenture to son John, reported the property as approximately 420 acres with an adjacent 41 acres added by warrant dated Jan. 24, 1733 (totaling the 461 acres mentioned above). Converting the measurement on the larger parcel of "perches" to miles reveals its approximate size to have been .5438 Miles by 1.275 miles in size. Local historian Dick Yoder of Bechtelsville has reported that Hans' (OH) original log home was across Yoder Road from the site of the present residence (see homestead map from the reunion tour book).

In the April 2020 article "Johannes Jotter of Mussbach Nephew of Hans and Yost" we discuss the complicated manner by which John (OH1) obtained the rights to Daniels property in 1771. The German document spells out that of the 461 acres owned by Hans, he "had left the northeasterly half to his son Johannes Jotter from his first marriage, and determined that the southwestern half of the land to his son from his second marriage, Daniel Jotter." (emphasis added)

And "And after the aforementioned Daniel Jotter should die without will and legal issue about 1747 but leave behind his own mother and widow still living, These women should enjoy during their lifetime income and rights from this land"

The YNL75 article makes clear that the SW portion of the Hans the immigrant (OH) property was willed to son Daniel who was to care for the widow Anna Rosina.

In an April 1997 article (YNL 29), entitled "Ancient Inscription Found in Hans Yoder House", we describe a carved inscription which was found on a lintel into the older section of a home found on the property which would have been given to Daniel. The inscription reads "Johannes Jotter in the Year and his wife Anna Rosina 1741". Opinions differed over whether this section of the home was really built in 1741, or if the lintel was reused in a later reconstruction, but it certainly provided us a clue to what was happening on what was to be the Daniel Yoder portion of the property.

The 1737 survey of Daniel's property shows 150 acres as follows:

SURVEY RECORD BOOK A VOL 31 PAGE 177

An Indenture recorded 30 Mar 1772 explains what later happened to this property. Not long after the death of Daniel (Aug. 21, 1747), his widow Elizabeth remarried to Matthias Hollenbach (Oct. 2, 1750), a widower also of Oley Township. John, brother of Daniel, was considered Daniels' "heir at law" and he did "bargain and agree with the said Matthias Hollenbach and Elizabeth his wife for her part right and inheritance of in and to all the real estate of the said Daniel Yoder" and the property was conveyed to him by indenture dated 14 Apr 1760.

By indenture dated 21 Feb 1767 John (OH1) and his wife Barbara transferred ownership of this parcel (then described as 168 acres) to their son Peter, and "to remove some doubts which arose concerning the validity of the said John Yoder's title" the deed was obtained in 1771 from Johannes Yoder in Germany as described in the article featured in YNL75.

The Daniel Yoder home, located at 92 Covered Bridge Road, Oley, PA, was described as follows when last placed for sale in 2012:

This place in ancient, at least in American context. Built in 1782 on a farmstead established in 1714 on the banks of the Manatawny, the Yoder house is massively built of stone and timber. It is as plumb and square as the day it was built. The exterior is notable for the rose colored scribed stucco and the steeply pitched roof. Thankfully, the interior is largely untouched, un-fooled-around with. Original hardware, doors, floors, windows, etc. Remain. With a number of early outbuildings, the property is an artifact in its own right. The setting on the creek affords privacy, a spectacular view of the covered bridge and enormous sycamore and silver maple trees.The property, located near the covered bridge, has been described as "the John Yoder Jr. house"

In 1750 John Yoder sold his 1/3 ownership of the Oley Forge Property (46 above) to son-in-law John Leshner. By deeds recorded between 1767 and 1772 John Yoder (OH1) and wife Barbara deeded parcels of his land to sons John (OH11), Peter (OH14) and Samuel (OH13). The driving distance between the two properties is .7 miles (a 2 minute drive). The remaining Homestead property is on the north side of Pleasantville (13 Yoder Road) and contains 95 acres of land in two adjoining parcels. The Covered Bridge property now contains a bit over 26 acres.

From the Current Berks County Land Records

We are faced with some questions. Was the house by the covered bridge being built by Hans during his final illness to be the home of his widow and married son Daniel? Hans must have died no later than early January of 1741, which does not give much time in the year to have actually completed anything. As Hans transferred the northeast half of his land to son John in 1735, where did he and his second wife and son Daniel live after that time? The warrant and resulting survey for Daniel were dated 1737 and 1739 respectively. Were they still living in the original homestead on John's property or had they moved to the other half of the land which he retained until his death? Hans (OH) was 63 at the time he transferred half of his property to son John and 65 when he initiated the warrant to have the balance surveyed for son Daniel.

records from that church to see if there was a transcription error- where "Eleanor" was misread as "Elizabeth"..

She recently succeeded in finding a copy of the actual. THERE WAS A TRANSCRIPTION ERROR... but not the one she was expecting! Daniel and "Elizabeth" did have children, but Adam's wife (long misread as "Sally" and cited as such years ago in an article in "Catawba Cousins") is clearly "Nelly" (a nickname for Ellender/Eleanor). This was further confirmed by German script expert, and YNL consultant, Bruce Stahly. The Zion records show that Adam and Nelly had a son John George born Jul 9, 1811 and another son Adam, born Dec. 12, 1813. Census records also seem to support that there was an older son, named David (perhaps named after Adam's older brother) born about 1807 and married in Haywood Co, NC on Apr. 5, 1826 to Fanny Guiliams. In the 1830 Macon Co, NC census, David was living next door to his widowed mother and siblings with a wife and children of his own.

Daniel and Elizabeth appear to have had four children by 1810, possibly one as early as 1800 or 1801. Oldest child Absolom (Absolom) Yoder died Jul. 2, 1870 in Davis Co., IA "in 70th yr". So it seems obvious that Daniel did not marry Ellender Davis in 1807 – perhaps he signed the bond for his younger brother?

Despite what the marriage bond listed, it seems certain that Ellender's husband and Ephraim's father was Adam (Con8), and as she was a widow by 1830 we can now say Adam had died by that date! (although you will see unsourced claims in many trees on ancestry.com that he died in Tennessee on 14 Jul 1864). Coincidentally (?) David Yoder, third son of Conrad Yoder, who was born April 3, 1770, actually DID die July 14, 1864..... but he was not Adam!

Anita has identified Ellender's father as Allen Davis with the following reference: LINCOLN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA WILL ABSTRACTS, 1779-1910, by Miles Philbeck, Jr. and Grace Turner, (1986). Allen's will cites "Elliner" as his second daughter and shows her husband Adam "Yoder" as sharing the role of executor with the widow.

"ALLEN DAVIS, 28 October 1807, January 1809. Wife: AN SUSANNH. Children: NANCY DAVIS, GEORGE DAVIS, ALEN DAVIS, MARAY MAGLIN DAVIS, LISABETH DAVIS, SARAH (oldest daughter), ELLINER (second daughter). Exec. ADAM YODER, my wife. WIT: THOMAS THOMPSON, JAMES CHITWOOD."

The 1810 Lincoln Co., NC census shows Adam still using the spelling "Yoder". He is "Yother" by 1820 in Haywood Co, NC. Ellender's older sister Sarah (aka "Sally") married Richard Johnson in 1800.

New Year Donation to the House of Yoder?

(Most of the trees are now gone, but all repairs are finished)

In early spring, storm damage to Spruce Village (including the roof of and trees surrounding the House of Yoder (HOY)) delayed opening for visitors. Then the covid impacts hit and as a result the HOY only had 2 active host weeks this summer. So finances are very thin. Any Christmas/Year End donations would be greatly appreciated. The Penn Alps restaurant (there at Spruce Forest Village) held Christmas at Penn Alps (instead of the village) the weekend of Dec 4 and 5. HOY was open, handing out popcorn as is the usual thing for them to do. If you would like to help them with their finances into the New Year, send a donation to: House of Yoder, % Mayla Yoder, 2274 Salco Road Berlin, PA 15530.

The Bishop Christian Yoder Jr Barn

In YNL76 we shared a photo of the Somerset Co., PA. Bishop Christian Yoder Jr (YR2337) barn damaged by April 2020 storms, which removed parts of the roof. Thanks to Mayla Yoder of the House of Yoder for providing further details of what has happened to the structure. Pat Navarro of Pittsburgh bought the building and had it carefully disassembled to be rebuilt close to the "Rails to Trails" in Markleton, PA. The picture above shows the remaining stone walls which are to be reclaimed for the new building site. Historians believe the barn was built around the 1830-40 timeframe and was one of only five barns of the design constructed in Somerset County... only two of which will soon exist. More details about this homestead and the barn were presented in YNL39 & 49.
